DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is responsive to amendment 3/1/05. Claims 1-24 are currently pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-20 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ono et al. P.N. 5,581,223 (Ono).

Ono discloses a magnet for MRI. As shown in Fig 1, the magnet includes a plurality of main coils 3 radially surrounded by a plurality of shielding coils 2. The shielding coils shape the fringe field produced by the main coils so that an area of low fringe or stray field (5 gauss line) is created. Electronics can be safely placed at 2.06 m from the center of the FOV. See lines 1-14 of col.7. Ono meets all the limitations of the claims at issue.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 21-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ono as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Crozier et al. P.N. 5,818,319. The difference between Ono and the claims at issue is that Ono does not specifically suggest the use of computerized optimization for determining coil positions for his magnet arrangement.

Crozier discloses methods for designing actively shielded magnets for Magnetic Resonance Imaging. See Example 1 at col. 12 and note the main and shielding coils 72 and 74. Col. 6-12 describe how the design of the shielded magnet can be optimized using a computer optimization program. Note that fringe field requirements are defined as described for example in the third paragraph of col. 9.

To use the optimization taught by Crozier to design a shielded magnet having the advantages of Ono would have been obvious to the artisan of ordinary skill in the art.

Art Unit: 2859

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Pissanetzky, Palkovich et al., and Krogmann et al. all disclose actively shielded magnets for MRI. Note their entire disclosures.
8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
